is attributed to Blanket and Glove Manufactories.—(v) The entire Parish of Deddington contains 2,078 Inhabitants, and 3,990 Acres.—(w) The Population and Area of Nether-Kiddington are included in the Return of the Parish of Over Kiddington, Chadlington Hundred.—(x) The entire Parish of Kiddington contains 1,217 Inhabitants, and 5,000 Acres.—(y) The Return of South Leigh states that 11 Families, consisting of 60 Persons, belonging to and supported by that Parish, are, for the want of Houses, residing in adjoining Parishes; on which it may be remarked, that in the year 1811, the Houses being 48 in this Parish, the Population was 248, or 5 Persons to a House; in 1821, 6 Persons to a House; and in 1831, nearly 7 Persons to a House or Cottage, while the entire Hundred of Wootton, (subtracting South Leigh) still affords a Cottage to 5 Persons; among whom are the 60 Persons thrust out of South Leigh, to the eventual detriment of adjoining Parishes; an irregularity attributable to the operation of the Poor Laws.—(z) The Return of Sandford Parish includes Grove-Ash and Ledwell Hamlets.

12th, (regarding Agriculture and other Employments of Persons); these Questions appearing to be irrelevant to the circumstances; of the case; and it being presumed that the 10th Question would comprehend the whole of the Members resident within the precincts of the several Colleges and Halls as (Educated Men) excepting the Servants. Almost the whole of the Servants, and a certain portion of Students and other Members of Colleges and Halls, are resident or lodging in the Town, and are therefore returned in the account of the Population of the several Parishes in the City of Oxford. The Population actually resident within the Precincts of the several Colleges and Halls can vary but very little from the Return of 1821, inasmuch as the extent of these Precincts, and the occupation of them, is almost entirely the same.

N.B.—But in entering the Return of the University, each College and Hall has herein been deemed a House, as being often so designated in speaking of the “Heads of Houses;” and each Head of a House may be deemed to have a family establishment; all others to constitute one family in each College, as boarding in common; the Canons of Christ-Church (the Cathedral Precinct of the Diocese, as well as a College,) form an exception. The Colleges are arranged in the usual order, according to seniority of foundations.—J. R.

(b) The Parishes of Brockley and Kingston-Seymour form a distinct portion of Chewton-Hundred to the N. West.—(c) The entire Parish of Chewton-Mendip contains 1,315 Inhabitants, and 7,020 Acres.—(d) Whitnell-Tything is included in the Return of Emborrow Parish, which is called Emborrow In and Out.—(e) In the Parish of Farrington-Gurney, 43 Men are employed in Coal-Pits.—(f) The Return of the Parish of Midsummer-Norton includes the Tythings of Clapton, Downside, Midsummer-Norton and Wilton, all of which, in 1821, made distinct Returns; 300 Men are employed in Coal-Pits, and 250 in like employment in the Parish of Paulton. In the Return of the latter Parish, it is stated that Boys of the age of 15 and 16 are thus enabled to earn very high wages, by which means they are rendered independent of all parental control; that this naturally leads to dissipation and improvident Marriages, to which causes the increase of Population (404 Persons).

situate in Bath-Forum Hundred.—(t) The Iron Ore Works and Collieries, in the Parishes of Long-Ashton and Backwell respectively, employ 14 and 37 Men.—(u) The great increase of Population (5,151 Persons) in the Parish of Bedminster is ascribed to the number of Cottages built (upwards of 900) within the last 10 Years, and which are chiefly occupied by labouring Families employed in the City of Bristol, of which this place is a Suburb, on the Somersetsbire side of the River

Avon; and here it may be necessary to observe, that being so connected with the City of Bristol, the 1,370 Males employed in Retail Trade or Handicraft have been deemed to form a part of the Trades and Handicraft of that City, and are there specified accordingly, although not omitted in Total Specification of Somersetsbire. Bristol Gaol is situate in the Parish of Bedminster, and contains 172 Persons, included in the Return of that Parish; 146 Men are employed in Coal-Pits.
